THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1885.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

Spurts of the cold,
Spots of the snow,
When the hills are ringing
Churchward go.

P O P.

THE RIVER rose about five feet last night.

THE new opera house will be ready for occupancy on the 2d of February.

ALL the property of the Ohio Piano Company, at Ripley, has been sold to W. H. Power.

SEE notice elsewhere of reduction in prices of cloaks, dolmans, new markets, etc., at Messrs. A. R. Glascock & Co's.

THE annual meeting of the Odd Fellows' Funeral Aid Association will be held in the hall next Monday evening at seven o'clock.

H. THOMPSON's barn near Lexington, containing a large crop of tobacco, burned on Thursday. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

MESSRS. C. S. YOUNG & CO., will move next week from January block to Mr. Charles H. White's business house on Second street adjoining Vicroy & Lee's clothing store.

A MAYOR, Marshal, Clerk and Treasurer will be elected in Chester on the first Friday night in February. Messrs. W. H. Ryder, George N. Harding and C. P. Dieterich are spoken of as candidates for Mayor.

The Paris Kentuckian says: The announcement of the marriage of Mr. Geo. Schroder, brother-in-law of N. Kriener, to Miss Emma Cunningham, was made in the Catholic Church last Sunday. They are both formerly of Maysville.

The following is from the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat: Judge Garrett S. Wall, of Maysville, is mentioned as an applicant for U. S. District Attorney for Kentucky. It is conceded on all hands that he would make an efficient officer.

ALL members of DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet in the library room, Monday evening next, on business connected with the "Degree Team." Members of the uniform camp will meet in the lodge room in full uniform.

ED. TIRELKELD, colored, of Mayslick, was tried in the Circuit Court yesterday on the charge of cutting Ambrose Moran with intent to kill. He was adjudged guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year. The offense was committed at Mayslick last September while the colored fair was in progress.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by Brown County, Ohio, since our last report:

J. W. Miller and Nannie Smith, Albert H. Stamm and Lizzie C. Hebling, John Russell and Patton Ellin Bremer, Benjamin F. Lamp and Mattie Myers, Alice E. High and John Reynold, Charles Currey and Annie Stewart, James Kinney and E. E. Black.

The protracted meeting now in progress at the M. E. Church has been well attended, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, and a good deal of interest manifested. There have been some five conversations during the week. The meetings will continue during next week, except Saturday. There will be preaching to-morrow morning and evening by the pastor and general class at three p.m.

Any Man Who has a Dollar, wants to be rid of debility, dyspepsia or any of those wasting diseases which drag people down and make them wretched, can invest his money wisely in a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. Mr. Minnick, of Ashtabula, D. C. says, "there is no question about it, Brown's Iron Bitters is the best thing in the world to tone a person up. It improved my appetite and restored my health." When you consider that for the price of a good dinner you can buy what will enable you to enjoy your dinners, it seems a pity to go without Brown's Iron Bitters.

THE Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, in noticing the withdrawal of Messrs. Hechinger & Bros' branch store from that place, says: "They do not quit business in Mt. Sterling because they did not make money nor because they do not like the town, but in accordance with their determination made some time since to withdraw all branch stores. Our people had become much attached to Charlie Ludwig, the gentlemanly, polite and accommodating manager, and regretted to see him leave. Those who came in contact with Mr. L. Zech, on his occasional visits, also are sorry that he will come no more among us. Hechinger Bros are liberal, enterprising gentlemen. We wish them continued success."

PERSONALS.

Mr. J. T. Bradden, of Newport, Ky., is in the city.

Mrs. F. B. Ranson and children are visiting friends in the country.

Miss Florence Frank, who has been visiting friends at Frankfort, has returned home.

Rev. Harry Henderson returned to-day to his work at Highland, near Newport, Ky.

Mr. J. K. Bennington, who has been very sick at Ripley, is still in a very critical condition.

Miss Nettie Wood, of Washington, who has been attending school at Oxford, O., will return home next week.

The Ripley correspondent of the Brown County News says: "George H. Schneider was in Maysville last week looking after his matrimonial prospects. We understand they are fair."

THE CHURCHES.

The usual services will be held at St. Patrick's Church to-morrow.

Services will be held at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening at the usual hours by Rev. R. B. Garrett, the pastor.

The usual morning and evening services will be held at the Southern Methodist Church to-morrow by Rev. J. A. Henderson, the pastor. Everybody is invited.

DR. WOODRUFF, veterinary surgeon of Chicago and New York, who has been at Lexington for some weeks, has received from Commissioner Lorinc his dismissal from the position of inspector of horses and cattle in Kentucky, which he held for a comparatively short time.

Trumpet Mills Burned.

Special to DAILY BULLETIN.

COVINGTON, January 17.—The Trumpet Mills burned to the ground last night and are a total loss. These mills were owned by Messrs. D. Keefer & Co.

Jones entered his office and sat down at his desk in a very profound and emphatic manner.

"What's the matter?" inquired his partner. "Something gone wrong?" "I walked across the floor with a crying baby from midnight until 6 o'clock this morning, and as I left the house the first person I met was Smith, who said with an idiotic smile: 'Ah! old man, you look rather tough. Out with the boys again last night?' Some men make me sick."

"I hear you are without a preacher over in your congregation?"

"Yes; he left two weeks ago."

"Had a call at a higher salary, I presume."

"Not as I know of."

"Health failed him, perhaps?"

"No; his health seemed to be good."

"Congregation didn't like his preaching?"

"Yes; they seemed to."

"Well, then, he resigned?"

"No—not exactly. Fact was he unloaded lot of railroad stock on us at 74; and the men who got it, with some talk about tar and feathers, took him out just as the stock touched 72."

Banking Intelligence.

He wanted a position in an Austin Bank. The President was satisfied with his credentials, but before suggesting him to put him through a little civil service training.

"Suppose now, a man was to come in here to deposit twenty dollars in one dollar bills, how would you count them?"

"I'd wet my finger and lift up each bill until I got to the last one."

"Why would you not lift up the last one?"

"Because there might possibly be one or more bills under it, and if the depositor was to say he wanted to withdraw it, he would be compelled to count them?"

"I'd wet my finger and lift up each old stand."

"For sixty days we will offer our entire stock of boots and shoes at greatly reduced prices. We wish to reduce stock and will make it to the interest of those needing footwear to look through our stock before purchasing."

F. B. RANSON.

CITY ITEMS.

Troy Langdon's City Butter Crackers.

Coal 10 cents per bushel delivered at C. T. Kneeram & Co's. J15d2t

Call at Blatterman & Co's. and examine new departure in bound books, standard works.

Kackley's photograph gallery is now ready, enlarged, improved and anxious to reproduce great artistic effects, at the old stand.

"Because there might possibly be one or more bills under it, and if the depositor was to say he wanted to withdraw it, he would be compelled to count them?"

Ladies.

Give me a lady sand-wich
With ham, cheese and feather; and feed;
It's the first thanksgiving of pleasure
I've had for many a year.

Fry me a dove or pheasant;
From the forest bring me a western plain;
Bring me a buffalo bleeding
For the wallet of G. Blaine.

Throw me an acre of flapjacks
So hot I'll catch fire; cream;
Hold me a minute, water,
Till I shriek old time scream.

Give me a Jefferson doughnut,
Smaller than a man's pine; a pie;
Knock in the head of a barrel,
Give me a chance to get lo'e.

On, for a bit of a pumpkin
As big as a man's brain top;
Old Tom, old Tom, old Tom;
Dipped in some elephant sop.

Give me a turkey live;
Bring me a live hen;
Turn me loose in the honey
And let me have a live love.

Let me have a wain, wain, wain,
Waiting twenty four years on a f-a-t;
Now we've got 'em you, got 'em;
The Democrat's it's there at last.

Rub me down with a dozen skin,
With a dozen skin, with a dozen skin;
I'm a goat, I'm an old hyena,
I'm a wolf, I'm a grizzly bear.

Let me give thanks for a million !
Let me give thanks for a million;
Let me give thanks for a million;
Let me rise up as old Ebenezer,

Let me ride an angel's wing;

Cavalier and Hounds have got there—
Cavalier and Hounds have got there—
Give me a derrick for a litter;
And let me raise up a shout.

—Howard County, (Mo.) Advertiser.

PERSONALS.

The Cow boy on Roller Skates.

(St. Paul Day.)

"I am more used to riding horseback, and as soon as I straddled the layout I was wishing I had a buck reef because I expected them to stiffen their knees and give them a grip, but when I got up I found them over to the other end of the central gentle to a little, and directly they started off at an easy canter, and were coming around back right through the handle bar, and there was a dude with a wide smile on his face, and he was wearing a tall Angora heifer in a blue dress, and I fouled, roped my hind legs in a hoop skirt, and it had me stretched out ready for branding, quicker! spring' calf can bawl with his mouth open and all the time he was running, so I got up on them vehicles! and you ought to see me ex-cuse him when I tried to hurry 'em and they would rear up and fall back when I tried to stop 'em too quick! but I leave it to you to imagine what a ride in that! I got round there for three or four hours and had 'em roll over and over with me, and didn't get off!"

Getting Down to Hard-Pan.

(Wall Street News.)

They were talking about the times and the general disposition to buy large stocks or make heavy investments, when a hardened man ended into the crowd and said:

"Gentlemen, we have been living beyond our means, and we must get down hard-pant and begin over again."

"That may be all very true," replied one of the others, "but who will begin?"

"I have already begun," said the bald-headed man.

"I was worth $30,000; I bought $20,000 worth of city stocks, and staked to $10,000 in a mansion. The result is that I am right down to bed-rock and ready to begin anew. Do any of you happen to know a good opening for a dancing master?"

He Had Stopped.

(Elizabethtown News.)

A friend of ours in Washington tells the following story on our Congressman, Tom Robertson: When he first appeared at Washington, in conversation with a brother Congressman, he was told: "You're a sensible friend of mine, but one day told me before leaving, that after arriving here there would be two important things for me to attend to. One was to stop swearing, and the other to appear in a swallow-tail coat. Well, I have stopped swearing," remarked Robertson, "but I'll be d—d if I will wear a swallow-tail coat."

CAST OFF BY HIS MOTHER

A NEW YORK SOCIETY LADY PUBLISHES HER SON'S DISGRACE,

And Warns the Public Against Him—A Place for Vanderbilts Son-in-Law—Opera for the West—Warblers Under Contract.

New York, Jan. 17.—Sidney R. Wright has been a prominent member for some five years past of what is known at Delmonico's, the Brunswick and other uptown fashionable restaurants. He is a well-known character. He is a regular "first-nighter" at the theater, and many of his escapades with various actresses of the comic opera companies were widely discussed at the clubs and at times found their way into print.

His mother, a society's social position in popularity made people more lenient to his shortcomings than they would otherwise have been, and several times his mother settled his debts for him.

He is the son of Mr. Lewis Wright, of New York, who died about twelve years ago, leaving his children, three daughters and two sons, about $2,000 a year each.

The elated son, Mr. Louis Wright, married Miss Anna May, the former fiancee of Mr. James Gorham, dramatics, some three years ago, and the Misses Wright, his sisters, have been promised for their beauty and attractive manners in society for some years.

Mr. Wright is a slender, twenty-four-year-old, and his sister, finally became so numerous that his brother, after vainly trying to reform him, was obliged to send him abroad two years ago. He did not behave himself, as he had been told, with great frankness, and only under the conviction that it is for his best interests, as well as that of others. I will pay no debt of his incurred by any circumstance.

WARNING.—I am forced to notify the public that we do not give credit to my son, Sidney R. Wright, I consider it to be impudent in many ways, and I adopt this course with great frankness, and only under the conviction that it is for his best interests, as well as that of others. I will pay no debt of his incurred by any circumstance.

[Signed] Mrs. ISAAC M. WRIGHT.

The greatest sympathy is expressed for Mrs. Wright and her daughter in regard to their son and brother's wayward course.

Going Back a Widow.

NEW YORK, JAN. 17.—With a light-hearted good-natured smile, Mrs. Fredrick Eichmeyer entered Castle Garden Thursday, and with tears in her eyes implored Superintendent Jackson to send her and her child to Hamburg. Her story is a painful one and created much sympathy for her arrival. She added, however, that she said, "Accompanied by my husband and our child here. Our prospects were bright. My husband had quite a sum of money, the savings of years of labor, and we went to Hamburg, Bohemia country. Mrs. Wright says, we bought some land and farming implements and built a home. We worked hard and were getting along as nicely as could be expected when, on Christmas eve, my husband was crushed to death by a Chinaman. He was attacked on the roadside, not a half a mile from home, as he was returning from town. My husband's body was brought home, and from that day forward we were compelled to live on the proceeds of the poor annuities I was hardly conscious of existence." The commissioners sent the mother and daughter to Hamburg, purchasing her a first-class passage at their own expense.

Opera for the West.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The principal cities of the eastern and western states are to have an opportunity of hearing the artists now performing at the Metropolitan opera house until April. Details of the arrangement for this spring. Enrolments have been signed with all the performers extending their engagement from February 15, when it was originally intended they should terminate, to May 1. On January 15, the company are to open a second a two weeks' tour in the western states, in Cincinnati, thence they go to Cincinnati and return from that point, in all probability, eastward. Fifty musicians and as many choristers will accompany the principals, each of which the salary and many of the dress now in use at the Metropolitan are to be taken on the tour.

Leave New York Saturday.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The failure of the firm of John J. Cisco & Son bankers at No. 50 Wall street, is announced, and the members of the firm, John A. Cisco and Frederick W. Foote, made a general assignment to Lewis May, without preference. Rumors were to the effect that the firm had a week past regarding the firm which were emphatically denied by them. Messrs. Blumenthal & Hirsch, who are counsel in the assignment, said they had just got the case, and had given quite minute information until the account had been prepared, which would take some time, but they thought the liabilities are in the neighborhood of $2,000,000.

A Place for Vanderbilts Son-in-Law.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Mr. Jas. Tillinghast has retired as president of the New York Central sleeping car company (the Wagner company). He was succeeded by Dr. W. Seward Webb, the son-in-law of Wm. H. Vanderbilt.

Carnegie on the Pittsburgh Failure. PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 17.—Regarding the failure of the Pittsburgh Trust Co., Mr. Andrew Carnegie says: "It only requires little indulgence on the part of the creditors of the firm to bring its affairs out all right. I consider Harlan one of the smartest men in America. The failure has not been caused, I think, by trying to carry too heavy a load. Recently, as I happen to know, he bought out two of his partners, which took just so much money out of his hands. He has done more for Pittsburgh than any man could carry any load he wanted to. No man has done more for Pittsburgh than Harry Oliver. He procured the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad and secured the appropriation at Washington for the bridge, gives sixteen thousand dollars. Creditors in Pittsburgh would not have brought this trouble on the firm. I understand that a large eastern firm held the paper. I have every confidence in Harry Oliver. He is a man of his word, and can do with the largest firms in the first trade, but it is a fact that the trade is lower than ever before in the history of America. As to the future of the trade, it must grow better for it couldn't be worse. When the spring is over I look for improvement. I look for low prices for a year or two to come."
